Note from Editorial Board

The Editorial Board of JIL (the Journal of Information Literacy) has taken the responsibility for publishing Volume 1, Issue 2 of JIL. Items for this issue were selected and compiled by our former editor, Sheila Webber.

We are delighted to welcome our guest editor Alison Ahearn. Alison is a Senior Teaching Fellow (Civil Engineering) and Lecturer (Educational Development) at Imperial College, London. Her editorial is highly inspirational and highlights why teaching students information literacy is so important. We hope you enjoy reading her thoughts as much as we did.

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank Sheila for editing the first volume of the Journal and we are pleased to announce that a new editor, Ronan O'Berine will take over editorship in the near future. The next issue is scheduled for publication in October 2007 and we will be issuing new guidelines for submissions.
